The football season started off well with captain "Rudy" Fasulo, "Salvy" Garland, Warren Reed (these latter two co-captains for next year), "Russ" Spaulding "Bobby" Baptiste, "Johnny" DePalma, "Willie" Bruno, Earl Mason, "Linc" Musto, and Linard Risgin giving their able assistance to the team. Leading the cheers were several juniors too: "Mickey" Morini, Gloria Dunn, Shirlie Buratti with "Cathy" Rego and Jean Palanza as substitutes.

The basketball season was on us before we knew it. On the girls' team Joyce Agan, Betty Bauer, Gloria Dunn, "Mickey" Morini and Nelia Pellegrini worked hard in a none too successful cause. "Binky" Anderson (captain of the J. V.'s), "Linc" Musto, "Willie" Bruno and "Johnny" DePalma, on the boys' team, did a very good job.

Scholastically, Joan Annese, Evelyn Austin, Warren Reed, "Betty" Giles, David Holt, Paula Lodico, Carole Lovely, Robert Menga, Carol Nelson, Joyce Nordberg, "Cathy" Rego, Linard Risgin, Vera Gross, Phyllis Tartaglia, Lucille Tessier, "Mickey" Morini and Sheila Rooney were outstanding.

On November 10, the juniors gave a dance welcoming Mr. Anderson and the freshmen, and their "Mistletoe Fling" was held on December 22. The third dance allowed this class was the all-important Reception in June.

The members of the senior class have enjoyed being with you and wish you happiness and success in your final year at the school. Good luck and have fun!

Time Marches On!

The class of '53 started its sophomore year, under the guidance of its advisors, Mrs. Mildred Whitmore and Mr. Everett Robinson, with the election of: president "Red" Purrier, vice president "Rap" Petrillo, secretary "Meg" Graham and treasurer "Rosie" DeLutis.

Early in November they proved themselves to be most creditable hosts and hostesses when their original "Celebrity Night" was offered as an evening's entertainment. The event was both pleasant and successful.

The sophomores have done more than their share in providing us with athletes. "Rap" Petrillo, Roger Gaboury, "Red" Purrier, "Billy" Donlan, Peter Richardson, "Doug" Titus and Roy Nordberg participated in football. The class was well represented in basketball by "Red" Purrier, Clyde Madan, "Billy" Donlan, "Herby" Linn, Peter Richardson, and "Willy" O'Hare.

Dolores Rossi, Joanne Burrell, "Meg" Graham, Sandra Murphy, Claudia Miller, "Patty" Fornaciari and Lucille Giovino played on the girls' basketball team.

From a scholastic viewpoint, the class has many bright prospects and, in general, seems well on its way to maintain a high level of attainment. Among the more brilliant stars are: Rosemary Delfino, Rosemarie DeLutis, Marion Graham, Herbert Linn, Claudia Miller, Ruth Miller, Ruth Partington, Priscilla Ross, Kent Sabin, Naureen Shea, Gayle Woodwell.

We shall always remember the sophomores for their carefree ways and their good social demeanor. We wish them more good times in their last two years at M. H. S. and much success thereafter.

No Longer Green!

Beginners at the High School always start off with a bang. The problem of orientation is a big one, with new rooms, new teachers, and a flow of traffic to which they are not accustomed. This group, however, seemed to settle down in a hurry.

The first project, that of class elections, was properly conducted thanks to the able assistance of Miss Driscoll and Miss Walsh. The newly elected officers were: Louis Gordon, president; Daniel Palanza, vice-president; Carol Ferguson, secretary; Beverly Metrano, treasurer.

The lone dance allowed the Freshmen was held in the springtime. Since this is the main social event sponsored by the class it could not fail being a huge success in every way.

Aspiring to become football "greats" were the following players: Frederick Delfino, Manager; William Leanues, Joseph Mei, Daniel Palanza, Edward Richardson, and Philip Webb. The following players reported for basketball: Robert Bridges, Donald Forrester, James Forrester, Edward Richardson and John Zecher.

This group is one of the largest classes to enter the High School, and no one was left at the Central School, as in previous years. We have, therefore, been obliged to "squeeze in" somewhat more than customary. Thank goodness, the Freshmen were mighty nice company!

Indications have it that the group will have many outstanding students. We, who are leaving, are happy to extend to this class our best wishes of contentment and "passing grades" for the next three years.

Tatler

1st row, l. to r.: M. Hannon (advisor), C. Miller, C. Nelson, S. Lapham, G. Willis, J. Redman, J. Siegfried, P. Tartaglia, B. Kelly.

2nd row: L. Dill, J. Anderson, M. Morini, R. Kelley, E. Sampson, P. Kelley, J. Houghton, M. Milliken, B. Murphy, M. Reed.

3rd row: J. Annese, J. Annese, H. Kelly, W. McCarry, L. Searing, P. Gormley, C. DePrizio, J. Cascioli, B. Pedini.

The Tatler was in full swing again soon after the opening of school. With her usual zest, Miss Hannon had hopes of a better and more frequently published paper. Difficulties in assembling the staff made rapid coordination impossible at times and prevented achievement of this goal; however, it seemed that the local "newsette" did appear more often than ever, and in this respect we must necessarily label the staff "very active."

Graduation will strike deep into the ranks of this staff, cutting down such members as editor-in-chief Gwenne Willis, business manager Paul Kelley, Joan Redman, Joyce Siegfried, Lois Dill, "Jackie" Anderson, Earle Sampson, Margery Milliken, Barbara Murphy, Martha Reed, Helenjean Kelly, "Winnie" McCarry, Lorraine Searing, Patricia Gormley, Carla DePrizio, Jean Cascioli, and Barbara Pedini.

Here are a few efforts worthy of notice in '51: improvements in the famed "Gadabout"; local color expressed in a "Doolittle" column; a report on out-of-school activities related to students, such as Civilian Air Patrol, junior choral groups, scholarships, etc.; a closer correlation between the paper and the Journalism Class which naturally results in more and better writing being done.

The Tatler continues to be a favorite school activity and will ever remain in our grace as long as it maintains its present pace of interest and quality.

Cheerleaders

Kneeling, l. to r.: J. Redman, G. Dunn.

Standing: C. Miller, M. Morini, L. Poland, S. Buratti, C. Bernardo, L. Buratti.

These girls, trim in Mansfield's traditional green and white, have once again proved themselves of superior caliber in the cheerleading field, mostly because of their hard work and unsurpassed spirit.

With the backing of the student body, they did much to enliven the rallies, giving both boys' and girls' teams the much needed inspiration and moral support.

This year marks the final appearance for four of the girls, Lorraine Buratti, Celeste Bernardo, Joan Redman, and Loraine Poland who are leaving M. H. S. in June. But they pass on to this year's veterans Michelina Morini, Gloria Dunn, Claudia Miller, Catherine Rego, Jean Palanza, and Shirley Buratti, the task of forming a new squad.

We are proud of the '51 group of cheerleaders and thank them for a very able and lively performance.

Girls' Glee Club

2nd row: J. Annese, N. Shea, E. Ward, P. Jacques, C. Rego, B. Metrano, B. Conrod, J. Searing, C. Miller, L. Buratti, C. DePrizio, R. Barboza, P. Tartaglia, G. Chapman.

The group has had another busy season. Early in the year, they elected the above officers.

At Christmas time, with the assistance of the Boys' Glee Club, they presented a very enjoyable program, and this they did with admirable ease and poise. The quality of the singing displayed good training and commendation is in order. Also noticeable there for the first time was the size of the group, and the large number of these singers attests to the popularity of this Club among the students.

Chief among the experiences of the year, however, is the hope of presenting an operetta some time in May. Still in preparation and hard at work at it, they are looking forward to giving us "Nifty Shop", with an all-girl cast of about thirty, written for three voices. We are all looking forward to this spring concert treat.

So, good luck, "Sweetoons" and let us have harmony!

Boys' Glee Club

3rd row: A. Gleason, R. Leavitt, P. Webb.

Director	Miss Louise Perkins
President	Stanley Bryant
Secretary-Treasurer	Michael Wilde
Librarian	William Leanues

For the third consecutive year the boys organized early in the year under the capable leadership of Miss Perkins. The above officers were elected for the year.

At Christmas time they joined with the Girls' Glee Club to present the annual Christmas Program. "The Three Kings" was presented with solos by Kenneth Guillette, William Leanues, and Michael Wilde. They have been working on songs and sea chanteys to sing between the acts of the operetta to be presented by the Girls' Glee Club. We hope that the group will continue to grow and eventually become an outstanding feature of the boys' activities.

The New Era In Music

L. Perkins (in charge). High School members: E. Giles, L. Hofemann, R. Hofemann, C. Rego.

Slowly but surely, music is rightfully asserting its place in town. After many efforts and a "never say die" spirit, Miss Perkins is getting nearer and nearer to her goal of more and better music in our schools.

In terms of melodious progress, the orchestra has come a long way in the last few years, and due recognition goes to those who have kept at it all the time. In a small way, they really are pioneers and builders.

The orchestra, helped along by concert mistress, Lillian Hofemann, is starting to appear more and more in public. In March, the group played for the P.T.A. of West Mansfield. In April, it was for the Roland Green P.T.A. And, of course, there are always the important events: Christmas, the Spring Festival, and Graduation. On every occasion the performance was most commendable for youngsters working under such poor conditions of time and locality.

Stick to your guns, musicians! Soon, we will be able to point to you and say: "They have more than arrived!"

Band Prospects Brighter!

Mr. McNally (in charge). High School members: J. Horton, R. Leavitt, F. Larson.

These youngsters form one of the most interesting groups under development in the town of Mansfield. They may now be small in stature but they certainly are growing fast in numbers. There are actually forty nine members interested in the project and doing all they can to make it a success.

Mr. McNally, under whose direction they are performing, is a musician of outstanding quality. He is a war veteran, originally from Arizona, whose main work is being Associate-Conductor of the Boston University band. He appears to be just the inspiration the young people need to promote success in this arduous musical enterprise.

Needless to say, the main part of all practice and effort is directed toward the huge event in May: Concert Day. Judging from the serious preparations going on, it is bound to be much more than just satisfactory.

The Class of '51 is proud to endorse this movement toward more music. If the present rate of progress be maintained we shall soon have a wonderful band.

Class Play

L. to r.: S. Lapham (Miss Pologa), J. Redman (Cuckoo), L. Hofemann (Screwball), G. Willis (Olita), C. Briggs (Filmer), L. Dill (Antoinette), Curtis Griffin (Ham Ellers), C. Holmes (Goody), E. Sampson (Mr. Little), W. McCarry (Mrs. Little), S. Simon (Norman Peel), N. FitzRandolph (Henriette), T. Foster (Dicky Harpeddle), J. Siegfried (Mrs. Harpeddle), M. Alexander (Almatina).

Many of the seniors will never forget the little yellow books that were their constant companions during January. They meant study, practice, more study, more practice . . . until the big days came along.

The dress rehearsal was held the night before the Play. It ran smoothly and helped reassure the inexperienced actors that all would be well.

Miserable weather, heavy rains and high winds, almost ruined the opening night. It is a wonder anyone ventured out at all. Still a surprising number of people showed up and were treated to a good display of showmanship. Miss Wilhelm, the coach, had once again proven herself a master director.

The second night was a repeated success, both as to performance and to the number of people present, and the "Fighting Littles" had taken their place as a worthy group among the past stage heroes of the school.

Unforgettable will be: the many backstage exploits . . . the "Please, Keep Clean" in the dressing room . . . the last minute butterflies before going on stage . . . the unscheduled breaking of a chair . . . the worries . . . the frowns . . . and, above all, the smiles and the good feeling of the day after.

A Job Well Done!

The 1950 edition of the Green Hornets proved themselves a real powerhouse by rolling up the impressive record of five wins, three ties and but one defeat against their usual tough opposition. Even though Coach Jim Kelly had a large group of lettermen around which to build his team, not too much was expected, for these boys played on the 1949 club that had only a tie to show in nine games.

Oddly enough, the lone defeat came in the opener, when a more experienced Somerset team pinned a heart-breaking 6-2 defeat on the Kellymen. At that, the Green Hornets had the ball as far as the six inch line late in the game but were unable to hit paydirt.

One of the finest played games all year was the Franklin contest played the following Saturday. Both squads played excellent football and the final result could not have been fairer, a 6-6 tie.

In their third game the Hornets traveled way down to Swansea and found no trouble in swamping a weak Case High team 23-7, the Narry Leaguers scoring in the final seconds against the scrubs.

A small Oliver Ames eleven could provide little opposition for the now co-ordinated Hornets offense and went down to a 27-7 defeat. Capt. Rudy Fasulo had a field day, tallying four times.

A reported weak Bridgewater team nearly threw a monkey wrench in the Hornets hopes as they played their finest game of the year before bowing to the Green and White, 6-0, at Bridgewater. The victory was one of the hardest earned all year for the Hornets.

Class D powerhouse and defending state champs Dighton was next on the schedule and it took a gallant, though injury riddled, Hornet team to fight back and gain a 6-6 tie before the usual large crowd at the Memorial Park.

In a bitterly contested affair, the Green Shirts came from behind to tie a tough North Attleboro rival 7-7, in a game played on a field of mud at North Attleboro.

The always rough Dartmouth squad caused the Hornets plenty of trouble before going down a 7-6 setback at the Park. The game was expected to be a breather for the Hornets.

The most cherished victory of all came on Thanksgiving morning when before a large crowd at Foxboro the spirited Green Hornets trimmed a game Foxboro club 7-0. A 60 yard pass from Pesky to Curt Griffin was the margin of victory.

When the post season "all" teams were published, many of the Hornets were to be found on them. Given mention on the all state team were Capt. Fasulo, Warren Reed, and Curt Griffin. In addition to making several first team All Bristol honors, Fasulo was given honorable mention on the All American Schoolboy team published by an Oklahoma newspaper.

Fasulo, Reed, Griffin, and George Blomstrom were named to an all district team which included the Attleboros, Foxboro, and Mansfield.

More Glory!

With a starting five that consisted of all seniors, the Green Hornet hoopsters wound up the most successful basketball season in years by advancing all the way to the finals of the Class A South Shore Basketball tourney.

The Kelly clan opened the season with a bang and won their first seven games before losing a heartbreaking double overtimer to Foxboro. After that loss, the Hornets never again hit their peak until the Brockton Tourney. One distinct feature was that the Hornets defeated every opponent they played at least once.

Top individual honors went to Curt Griffin who set an all time scoring record for the high school by tallying 328 points. Others over the century mark in scoring were Capt. Paul Kelley with 154, Ben Merrill with 147, and Connie Griffin with 141. The fifth starter, Richard Pescosolido, played equally as fine ball as the others although not scoring as much from his position as guard.

After finishing a disappointing third in the Hockamock League, the Hornets hit their peak in the tournament. In the opening game they defeated the top seeded team, Plymouth, 47-38. Plymouth later accepted a bid to compete in the Class B Tech Tourney. Following the Plymouth upset the Kellymen really hit their stride in walloping Whitman in the semi-finals 75-58. In the final game, played before over 1000 fans, the Hornets just ran out of gas and were defeated by Stoughton 47-43.

The Junior Varsity, under the coaching of George Robinson, finished their season with a 5 and 5 record. Mostly freshmen and sophomores comprised the Jayvees. Their outstanding players were Red Purrier, Clyde Madan, and Willie Bruno.

Track

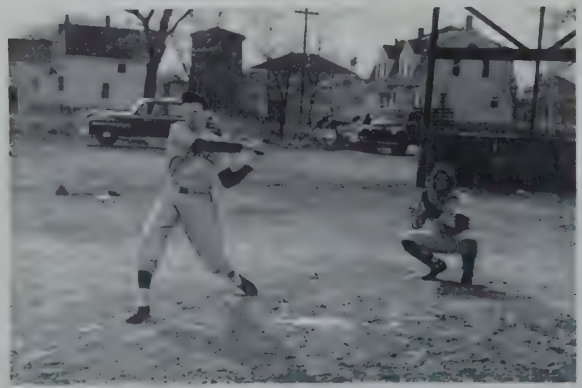
With only seven lettermen returning from last year's fine track team, the Green Hornets have their work cut out for them this season if they are to successfully defend their fifth consecutive South Shore Championship. Besides the South Shore title the Kellymen will also try to defend their Hockamock League crown.

Expected to share the burden for the Hornets are these returning lettermen: "Red" Purrier, "Curt" and "Connie" Griffin, "Ted" Foster, Warren Reed, Ralph Petrillo, and "Rudy" Fasulo.

The tentative schedule calls for several dual and triangular meets with neighboring rivals Foxboro, Sharon, Canton, and North Easton. In addition to these meets the Green and White will also participate in the Concord Invitational Meet while the outstanding performers may get a chance to show their wares in the State Meet.



Baseball

2nd row: Coach G. Robinson, P. Webb, W. Leanues, E. Richardson, G. Martin, G. Fontanini, R. Hofemann, R. Bridges, W. Donlan, J. Johnson.

As this yearbook goes to press, the official opening of the baseball season is still a couple of weeks away. At such an early writing it is hard to forecast the possibilities of this year's Hornet nine.

From last season's rather weak team Coach George Robinson has eight lettermen. They are: Paul Kelley, Richard Pescosolido, Bob Sandford, Dave Piccolomini, Richard Buck, "Ben" Merrill, "Binky" Anderson, and "Bob" Kelley. Others with some experience who might help us are "Will" Bruno and Stanley Bryant.

Six of the lettermen were starters last season and should form the foundation of a fairly good ball team. If Coach Robinson can find another pitcher and a couple of good hitting outfielders (who knows?) then the Hornets should be well involved in this Hockamock League title race.

The Green and White will be forced to play all their games away from home because of the reseeding of Memorial Park. Exciting Hockamock League games are scheduled with Canton, Foxboro, Stoughton, Sharon, Oliver Ames, Stetson, and the newcomer to the league, North Attleboro.

Spirit in Baskets!

Despite hard playing and frequent practices, the Green Hornettes ended their season with but two victories and one tie against eight defeats.

The first team was made up of the "pass and break" forwards: co-captain Celeste Bernardo, the long shot specialist; Kay Ellen FitzRandolph, the sophomore sensation (20 out of 31 points against Foxboro); Gloria Dunn, the free shot artist; and Nelia Pellegrini, the "pain-in-the-neck-to-the-other-side" performer. The regular "get those rebounds" guards were: co-captain Joyce Agan, whose high-jumping ability served a good cause; Betty Bauer, very athletic, very consistent; Shirley Lapham, calm, cool, and clever; "Winnie" McCarry, fiery and battling all the time; and Joyce Siegfried, firm and effective on defense.

Presented on this page are those students who have maintained a high scholastic average throughout their four years in Mansfield High School.

They have held their averages to 85 or better only because they realized that their studies were really important and that preparation for their chosen professions entailed much hard work.

Too often, more interesting but less important matters command our time and effort, then tend to blur that goal which we should try to reach, resulting in just "average" standing.

That is why we are proud of this honor group which has brought distinction not only to itself and to the class, but to the school as well.

We offer congratulations on their accomplishments and best wishes for their success.

Class History

by
Celeste Bernardo

It hardly seems possible that four years have passed since we, the Class of '51, entered Mansfield High School as freshmen. However, when we gaze back over our high school career, we can still vividly recall the anxiety and excitement of our first days at M. H. S., the tie-up of traffic in the corridors, due to the old system of passing, and the general all-round confusion of becoming acquainted with the High School.

The Freshman Class was divided, with half the students remaining at the Junior High School because of the lack of facilities. At their first class meeting, the Freshmen, with the help of their advisors, Miss Shepard and Miss Welch, elected their officers. They were as follows: Von Orton, President; William Shea, Vice-President; Carla DePrizio, Secretary; and Jacqualyn Giles, Treasurer. Those of us at the Junior High selected Richard Pescosolido, President; Barbara Wright, Vice-President; Jackalyn Anderson, Secretary; and Barbara Murphy, Treasurer.

Even as Freshmen our class showed great promise in producing good athletes. In football we were represented by Theodore Foster, with Ronald Olney acting as manager of the team. Those taking part in track were Theodore Foster and Ronald Olney. On the basketball court Curt and Connie Griffin and Benny Merrill were already making names for themselves. Benny Merrill was our lone aspirant on the baseball diamond. Lorraine Buratti, Lois Dill, and Lillian Hofemann played on the Girls' Softball Team.

Under the competent direction of Miss Hannon, several of our class joined the staff of The Tatler. They were Lorraine Buratti, Lois Dill, Jacqualyn Giles, and Ronald Olney.

Those who sang in the Glee Club were Lorraine Buratti, Carla DePrizio, Lois Dill, Jacqualyn Giles, Lillian Hofemann, Winifred McCarry, Loraine Poland, and Joyce Siegfried.

Several of our class were enrolled in the Latin Club, directed by Miss Jones. They included Mary Alexander, Celeste Bernardo, Lorraine Buratti, Carla DePrizio, Theodore Foster, Jacqualyn Giles, Curt and Connie Griffin, Lillian Hofemann, Helenjean Kelly, Lois Dill, Winifred McCarry, Marilyn Miller, Ronald Olney, Von Orton, Loraine Poland, Joan Rhodes, Robert Sanford, Lorraine Searing, Sheldon Simon, Patricia Stachelek, and Gwenne Willis.

George Blomstrom, Theodore Foster, Lillian Hofemann, and Ronald Olney were featured in the orchestra.

In June we attended our first Class Day exercises and bade the Seniors farewell.

When we returned to M. H. S. in September, our class was once again united. At an early meeting we elected our class officers. They were Paul Kelley, President; Theodore Foster, Vice-President; Joan Redman, Secretary; and Jacqualyn Giles, Treasurer.

Again our class was well represented in sports. On the gridiron were George Blomstrom, Orlando DiGiampietro, Charles Farinella, Theodore Foster, and the Griffin twins. New members of the Boys' Basketball Team were Richard Buck, Paul Kelley, and Richard Pescosolido. Those on the track team were Theodore Foster and Ronald Olney. Richard Buck, Paul Kelley, and Richard Pescosolido were the new members of the baseball squad. Our two members of the Girls' Basketball Team were Loraine Poland and Celeste Bernardo. Lillian Hofemann, Joan Redman, and Celeste Bernardo played varsity softball. Joan Redman and Rosalee Barnes were our contributions to the cheering squad.

Again many of our class were enrolled in the Latin Club. Helen Weber was our only representative in the Glee Club.

The Tatler staff included Mary Alexander, Jackalyn Anderson, Celeste Bernardo, Lois Dill, Helen Goddard, Carole Holmes, Paul Kelley, Benny Merrill, Ronald Olney, Lorraine Searing, Sheldon Simon, and Gwenne Willis.

Joan Redman was the only member of our class participating in the Pan-American Club.

During the year we held two highly enjoyable dances both of which were successful financially. The most memorable event of the year however was the selection of our class rings.

The days passed quickly and before we knew it once again it was June and time for vacations. Our very pleasant sophomore year was at an end and proudly we realized that we had become Jolly Juniors.

In an early fall election of officers, we re-elected Paul Kelley, President; Robert Sanford, Vice-President; Joan Redman, Secretary; and Celeste Bernardo, Treasurer. The second week of October arrived and with it our class rings. The students proudly displayed them to the envious underclassmen.

We held dances at Halloween and Christmas time.

This year the following boys were members of the Glee Club: Richard Buck, Theodore Foster, Paul Kelley, the Griffin twins, and Sheldon Simon. Lillian Hofemann played in the orchestra.

There were quite a few aspirants to The Tatler, namely, Mary Alexander, Jackalyn Anderson, Celeste Bernardo, Lois Dill, Helen Goddard, Carole Holmes, Paul Kelley, Winifred McCarry, Benny Merrill, Margery Milliken, Barbara Murphy, Richard Pescosolido, Earle Sampson, Lorraine Searing, Joyce Siegfried, Sheldon Simon, and Gwenne Willis.

Enrolled in the Pan-American Club were Celeste Bernardo, Richard Buck, Lorraine Buratti, Lois Dill, Jacqualyn Giles, Lillian Hofemann, Elmerta Joy, Helenjean Kelly, Marilyn Miller, Joan Redman, Joan Rhodes, Earle Sampson, and Patricia Stachelek.

Our class was very active in sports this year. Those seeing service on the football field were George Blomstrom, Curt and Connie Griffin, and Richard Pescosolido. Two new additions to the basketball team were Joseph Parente and Robert Sanford. The speedsters on the track team were Theodore Foster, the Griffin twins, and Ronald Olney. There were three new members representing us on the baseball diamond. They were Benny Merrill, David Piccolomini, and Robert Sanford. Wearing Mansfield's colors on the basketball court were Celeste Bernardo, Shirley Lapham, Winifred McCarry, Loraine Poland, Lorraine Searing, and Joyce Siegfried. On the softball team were Celeste Bernardo, Lillian Hofemann, and Joan Redman. Our two cheerleaders were Loraine Poland and Joan Redman.

Towards the end of the year the class chose Sargent Studios as class photographers. About this same time, several members of the class received honors. Richard Schulz was chosen as a delegate to Boys' State, while Marilyn Miller represented us at Girls' State.

The climax to our Junior year was the Senior Reception. Under the co-chairmanship of the Griffin twins, the class worked faithfully to make the party a success, both socially and financially.

With the completion of our Junior year, we were at long last Seniors. Early in September, we elected officers for the last time. They were as follows: Robert Sanford, President; Paul Kelley, Vice-President; Joan Redman, Secretary; and Winifred McCarry, Treasurer.

Under the expert coaching of Mr. Kelly, our teams had the most successful season in the four years of our high school career. On the football team were George Blomstrom, Charles Farinella, the Griffin twins, Paul Kelley, Richard Pescosolido, and David Piccolomini. The star-studded basketball team was composed of an all-Senior five, namely, Captain Paul Kelley, Benny Merrill, Curt and Connie Griffin, and Richard Pescosolido. On the track team were Theodore Foster and the Griffin twins. Our baseball players were Richard Buck, Paul Kelley, Benny Merrill, Richard Pescosolido, David Piccolomini, and Robert Sanford. The girl basketball players were Celeste Bernardo, Shirley Lapham, Winifred McCarry, Lorraine Searing, and Joyce Siegfried. Sporting the green and white uniforms of the cheerleaders were Lorraine Buratti, Celeste Bernardo, Loraine Poland, and Joan Redman.

We held four dances this year, "The Harvest Moon Dance," "The Drumstick Special," "The Spring Swing," and "The Hobo Hop." The new additions to The Tatler were Jacqueline Annese, Jean Cascioli, Carla DePrizio, Patricia Gormley, Helenjean Kelly, Shirley Lapham, Barbara Pedini, Joan Redman, Mary Reed, and Louise Souza.

Those in the Glee Club this year were Lorraine Buratti, Carla DePrizio, Jacqualyn Giles, Helen Goddard, Carole Holmes, Mary Lawrence, Winifred McCarry, Loraine Poland, Lorraine Searing, and our only boy vocalist, Sheldon Simon.

On February 1 and 2 the Senior Class sponsored the traditional class play, this year directed by Miss Jean Wilhelm of Wheaton College. The cast of "The Fighting Littles" consisted of Mary Alexander, (Almatina); Carlton Briggs, (Filmer); Lois Dill, (Antoinette); Norma FitzRandolph, (Henriette); Theodore Foster, (Dicky); Curt Griffin, (Ham Ellers); Lillian Hofemann, (Screwball); Carole Holmes, (Goody); Shirley Lapham, (Miss (Pologa); Joan Redman, (Cuckoo); Joyce Siegfried, (Mrs. Harpeddle); Winifred McCarry, (Mrs. Little); Earle Sampson, (Mr. Little); Sheldon Simon, (Norman Peel); and Gwenne Willis, (Olita).

In March, highest honors were announced as follows: Essayists—Mary Alexander, Jackalyn Anderson, Lois Dill and Winifred McCarry; Class History, Celeste Bernardo; Class Prophecy, Joan Redman; and Class Will, Gwenne Willis. The Good Citizenship Award was bestowed upon Joan Redman. Also, this month, we chose our class colors, orchid and silver; the class flower, the yellow rose; and the class motto, "This Far and Farther."

Two very amusing days were Tramp Day and Bow Day.

Commencement exercises were held on the following dates: Baccalaureate Sunday, June 17; Class Day, June 18; Graduation Exercises, June 19; and the Senior Reception, June 21.

With our Senior Banquet and other festivities of Senior Week drawn to a close, we, the Class of 1951, reached the final achievement of our high school careers, our diplomas. We are now ready to face life, confident because of the background that Mansfield High has given us. Its faculty has made our high school career both profitable and enjoyable. We shall always be thankful to them and to Mansfield High School for their help in training and preparing us for the world of responsibility we are about to enter.

Class Will

by GWENNE WILLIS

We, the graduating class of 1951 of Mansfield High School, with tears in our eyes and joy in our hearts, do make and declare this to be our last will and testament.

To Mr. Anderson, our superintendent, we leave our regrets that his stay at the high school was so short.

We leave to Mr. Pithie, our principal, a book on parliamentary procedure to be better obeyed by the Juniors.

To the faculty we leave hopes of better health in 1952.

We leave the Juniors with the advice, "Be careful which photographer you choose."

To the Sophomores we leave the wish that they will select class rings with engraved hornets.

We leave the Freshmen a handbook, "Manners in the Crowded Corridors of M. H. S."

To George we leave plenty of fluorescent tubes just in case there are more accidents or should I say incidents!

Donny Simon leaves a pamphlet on poultry culture to Dave "Lover" Holt who adores "chicks".

Ronald "Godfrey" Olney leaves his ukulele to the school band.

Ellie Joy leaves Ruthie Partington to keep Kenny out of mischief.

Marilyn Miller leaves her automobile to join all the other antiques at M. H. S.

Paul Kelley wills a few inches of his height to the diminutive Willie Bruno.

Von Orton wills a chauffeur's license to Lenny Risgin.

Barb Pedini leaves the dictionary her meaning of the word "Gig".

Carla DePrizio leaves a box of Dutch Cleanser to Gloria Dunn that her white sidewall tires will always be clean.

Francis Devine leaves his job in the office to anyone who can cause as much commotion.

Jeannie Cascioli leaves her pranks in shorthand class to Nelia Pellegrini.

Lundy DiGiampietro leaves a cc. of phosphorus to John "Firebug" McPherson that he may more readily burn up the school.

Mary Reed leaves the chemistry laboratory free from termites.

Richard Buck leaves M. H. S. without knowing that "meg" means great or powerful.

Jacky Giles leaves her dimples to Nancy Halloran who certainly doesn't need them.

Lester Mahoney, fugitive from Foxboro High, leaves M. H. S. with tearless eyes.

Lorraine Buratti wills her ability to hit high notes to Barbie Howe.

Helen Weber leaves the "chambers" of M. H. S. to Lillian Goddard.

Barbara "Lefty" Wright leaves a pair of boxing gloves to Joyce "Slugger" Agan.

Curt and Connie Griffin leave Mr. Kelly minus two outstanding athletes.

Helenjean Kelly wills an aversion to College Entrance Board Exams to Carol Nelson.

Ann Manning leaves her gentle voice to Vera Gross.

Jacky Annese leaves her clerical skill to Evelyn Austin.

Joan Redman wills a "peaches" and cream complexion to Gayle Woodwell.

Celeste Bernardo leaves M. H. S. for a good position in the Foxboro Company.

George Blomstrom leaves Pauline Jacques to all the "wolves" in Mansfield High.

Pat Stachelek wills a perfect attendance record to Andy Morrison.

Carol Wellman wills a copy of "Bell Bottom Trousers" to Catherine Rego.

Joyce Seigfried wills a beaten path to Foxboro to Joyce Nordberg.

Joan Rhodes leaves an ideal wardrobe for all occasions to Micky Morini.

Lorraine Searing wills her calm and collected composure to the prompter in next year's play.

Shirley Lapham leaves Mrs. "Whit" a compliment by showing an interest in Domestic Science.

Joe Parente wills a chemistry pronunciation gazetteer to anyone who can't manipulate the word aluminum.

Dave Piccolomini wills his studious nature to Red Purrier.

Dick Schulz wills his knowledge of Boys' State to next year's candidate for the honored trip.

As for me, I'd better leave before my fellow students doubt the legality of this great document, and I am arrested for slander.

In witness, thereof, we, the class of 1951, of Mansfield High School, hereby set our hand and seal to this, our last will and testament, on this eighteenth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and fifty-one.

Class Prophecy

by JOAN REDMAN

What will the future years unfold?
What will the story be, when told?
Shall I mention courage, honor or fame,
Glorious deeds or deeds without name?
Shall I say we are noble, honest and true?
What shall I prophesy, classmates of you?
Ah! what can I say for the future of youth?
The "heck" with it all, I'll just tell the truth.

Using my imagination and feminine intuition, I shall keep in mind Wordsworth's statement, "The child is father to the man." What we are today is the best prophecy of what we shall be tomorrow.

Working on this basis, I have decided that the Class of 1951 has more than its share of embryo politicians. Remember the class elections, the strings pulled behind the scenes, and the two or three outstanding class meetings! What is more reasonable than to assume that by 1975 many will have achieved success in political life?

Ah, yes! In 1972, Paul Kelley will win the presidency of the United States in spite of one dissenting vote, cast by his campaign manager, Elmerta Joy. In the same year, Mary Jo Lawrence will run for the office of Mayor of New York. Her motto will be, as it always has been, "All for one, and that one for me."

In Massachusetts, Carol Wellman and Barbara Wright will become prominent by creating a new party that aims to abolish labor in high school. Barbara Murphy will stand for an impartial platform which considers the two sides of every question,—her side and the wrong side.

In Mansfield, Orlando DiGiampietro will become Police Chief and the town will enjoy a great crime boom. Unfortunately, at the same time, he will be sued by the Town Counsel, Bob Sanford, for going out with a sweater girl and trying to pull the wool over her eyes. But Orlando will not have to worry because he will be represented by the clever lawyer, Celeste Bernardo. "Liz" Atwell and "Jackie" Annese, now Celeste's assistants, were formerly the private secretaries of "Ben" Merrill and "Connie" Griffin, prominent owners of a chain of hardware stores. The girls gave up their lucrative positions when they found that Ben and Connie could run faster than they.

Also on the local scene, George Blomstrom will be elected Town Manager on his three-point campaign platform—a garage for every car, double parking in the business district, and most important, an all-rubberized crew of garbage collectors to cut down noise in the wee hours of the morning. Carlton Briggs will earn himself quite a political plum. He will be game warden of Bristol County. Only once will he blink at the law, and that will be when he catches Russell Simmons, handsome Northwest Forest Ranger, trout fishing without a license.

In the National Capital, Carole Holmes and Lorraine Poland will be Congresswomen. They will urge the conservation of timber. Their solution,—shoot all the woodpeckers!

Curt Griffin's steady line of gab will be a great asset in the United States Senate. He will be known as the Great Filibuster, nicknamed "Buster". When he retires, the class will erect a monument to Curt, the biggest "bust" that ever was!

Other members of the class will enter highly specialized fields. After many experiments, Earle Sampson will invent a "do-everything" machine, which will wash and iron clothes, get meals, see children off to school, and even do the marketing at a low-cost. That boy always did have initiative! Speaking for the housewives of America, "Wini" McCarry and Helen Weber will commend Earle in their periodical, "Science On the March". These two girls will also tour the country preaching against the injustice of war to young women.

"Jackie" Anderson will be famous for her cartoons in the Sunday "funnies". Lester Mahoney, her model, will pose for the world-famous character, Tick Dracy. In one issue, Les or "Natural-gas" Mahoney, after he has been fed deadly poison, will be dropped from Brooklyn Bridge encased in a concrete box filled with bullet holes. But the unconquerable Mahoney will be back in the "funnies" next Sunday!

Richard Pescosolido will retain his interest in sports. He will still be a three-letter man, D. P. W. When not working for the town, he will follow the baseball games closely, very closely, by selling peanuts in some of the largest ball parks in the world. The word parks reminds me of Louise Souza and Jean Cascioli. They will be founders of a system of public parks where the birds and bees can get a high school education.

Sheldon Simon will be self-employed. By 1972 he will own a chain of poultry farms. Billboards all over the country will announce that, "*Simon*ized eggs are sunnier than any other sunny-side-up egg." Simon and his wife will enjoy prosperity, although it will be said by his neighbors that he is henpecked.

Lillian Hofemann will never abandon her first love, music. In 1955 she will marry E. Major and soon will be listening to minor tunes. (wah!) Margery Milliken and Pat Stachelek will become riveters, whose jobs will be to put "nuts" in Foxboro Sanitarium.

In 1955, Joyce Siegfried and Shirley Lapham will pool their talents in a Foxboro paper, The Truax Tribune. Joyce, as always, will be the authority on the Foxboro district. "Jackie" Giles, supervisor of the Giles' Day Kindergarten, will be the inventor of the noiseless baby carriage guaranteed to soothe the noisiest baby.

Mary Alexander and Marilyn Miller will be co-authors of a text, How to Remove Your Appendix in Ten Easy Lessons. Rumors will have it that they are business partners of Joe Parente and Richard Schulz who, by then, will be operating a "Cash and Carry Mortuary." When it comes to dying these men really know their business! Helenjean Kelly will give up her study of foreign languages to do something big and clean—wash elephants.

Now and then, what the town will think is a jet, will fly through, if not over, Mansfield. Only after a time will people realize that it is really Ted Foster in his "souped-up" stock car. After he wins that race at the Indianapolis Speedway, there will be no stopping him. Just think,—he trained for his career in high school "flying" to school at 8:31!

Every evening the children will see Joan Rhodes on television when she tells her entertaining bed-time stories. Her most popular tale will be "The Pie-Eyed Piper." Lorraine Searing also will star on television in a new soap drama, "Life Can Be a Mess." She will be the envy of all the women when she wears the latest dress creations of Norma Jo FitzRandolph. "Josie" designs clothes for everybody that is anybody on T. V.

Richard Buck will become an engineering enthusiast. All day long he will view figures of perfection, but he will have a few sharp angles of his own, namely, Barbara Pedini, his secretary. Carla DePrizio will open a swanky nightclub in the Middle West, with a special feature starring Lois Dill in her "Hopalong Casadeech," a modern ballet routine. Carla will be noted from coast to coast as a charming hostess and "bouncer". She gave up the nursing profession for this more glamorous job, but Von Orton persisted in his study of medicine. In 1960 he will be doctor in a sleek modern hospital in West Mansfield. His first patient will be Francis Devine, who will be suffering from an infection contracted when he jammed his finger in a locker door at the Mansfield High. Mary Reed, Von's personal assistant, will be a famed dietitian.

In one of the private wards, Charlie Farinella will be recuperating from a horrible experience. A year before he had proposed to Pat Gormley on Mount Washington, and she threw him over. Under the charming care of Lorraine Buratti, he will show no signs of recovering—that boy won't want to go home!

In another room, Angela Galanti will be caring for portions of Dave Piccolomini, who had been experimenting with dynamite. Dave always did do things with a bang! Despite his injury, he will manage to wear his cheerful grin. Gwenne Willis will spend her spare moments in the steam bath at the hospital. She will be known as the woman who rocks the nation—with her fiery editorials, that is! She will be excited over two of the greatest society "scoops" of the year. The first will be that Helen Goddard will have been mentioned in the latest book published,—the Current Telephone Directory. The second will be that Alma Ruth Merrifield and Ann Manning are arguing over Ronald Olney, who earns his living with a pen. He will raise pigs! As for myself,—but here my vision fails me.

To be serious a moment, I should like to wish my classmates a future of peace and happiness and to remember that—

When you tackle a job,
    and struggle right through it,
Who cares what it is,
    just as long as you do it?
When by hook and by crook,
    you've fought and you've done it,
Your future is safe, for the victory, you've won it!
